

1. Admin has centralized control above all users
2. CIN is marked as unique identification number. A user can only have one type of account
3. Modify Main page, modifies information displayed on main page
4. The options Manage User allows
  1. You can add or remove student , faculty
  2. Please assign Student Assistant with an account using add Faculty
  3. Inventory Management allows you to add or delete assessment from inventory list
5. Rates displays the flat cost of assessment and protocols which is used to calculate estimated price the user has to pay
6. Email address contains details about the email account that is used to send remainder. (Please use gmail account as the site is configured to send out email using gmail servers.
7. View Reservation displays all the information about online request made by students
8. Waiting List contains all the information about users placed on waiting list
9. Reports contains all the information about the items that are checked out most